

Sermon Outline: 4.29.18

Sermon Title: Resurrection's Therefore

Sermon Text: 1st Corinthians 15:58

Resurrection's Rewards

The Transformation of Believers

Justification of Spirit

Sanctification of Soul

Glorification of Body

The Transportation of Believers

By Resurrection or Rapture...

To a Great Reunion in Heaven

The Triumph of Believers

All Things Made New...

New Heaven & Earth

New Order

New Capital City

New Beginning

(1st Corinthians 15:58)

Resurrection's
Therefore

Resurrection's Therefore

Be Steadfast

Be Unmoveable

Be Always Abounding

Always = Pantote

"Every when; at all times; all ways, by all means, evermore."

(John 8:29) (2nd Corinthians 9:8)

Abounding = Perisseuo

"Excel; exceed; more abundant; super-abound, quality/quantity."

(Matthew 14:20) (Ephesians 3:20) (2nd Corinthians 9:8)

Question:

"When it comes to honoring Christ for all He's provided through His death, burial, and resurrection...
Do you always strive to do more than enough, or do you usually do just enough to get by?"

To frame it another way...
*“Are you satisfied with mediocrity,
or are you pursuing excellence?”*

(Colossians 3:17)

Is this church where God wants you to be?
What are you doing to make it better?
Are you giving it your best effort?

Labor = Kopos
“Toil; trouble; weariness.”

YOU are HERE FOR
the
THEREFORE!
Be Ye Steadfast!
Be Ye Unmoveable!
Be Ye Always Abounding!