Dear Friends and Admirers of Mischief and Goat Shenanigans,
We have some 'udderly' shocking news to share. Your favorite silver-haired troublemakers, Maude and Mabel, have found themselves in a pickle - or should we say, a jar of homemade jam? These mischievous grannies are in our custody, having been 'kid'-napped in the name of charity. We're not 'pulling the wool over your eyes.' They need your help to get set free! For just a few cups of loose change and a handful of roughage (hey, our goats have to eat, too!), you can free Maude and Mabel from this caprine caper and save yourself from hearing more 'baa-d' goat puns. Help us reach our ransom goal, and we promise to release Maude and Mabel back into the wild world of bingo, afternoon tea, and questionable dance moves. Your contribution will not only save their knitting circle reputation but also go towards a good cause - helping Team GOAT win The Grace Race - and an even better cause, supporting Cord of Three Counseling Services Family Fund. This fund helps families in a pinch get the counseling they need even if their wallets are as empty as a sweet tea pitcher after Sunday dinner. So open your wallet wider than a South Georgia grin, loosen those purse strings, and help spring Maude and Mabel from this hullabaloo by donating to Team Collins. Sincerely, Tony & Brandi Collins, aka Team GOAT
