

Sermon Outline: 9.7.25

Sermon Title: The Glad Joys of Serving Jesus

Sermon Text: Psalm 100:1-5

(Psalm 100:1-5, Psalm 100:2)

*For a true and grateful Christian, serving the Lord with gladness is an honor and a privilege,
an external extension of the internal joy of His grace!*

*“Gladness in service
is the music of a soul
in love with its Master.”*

(Psalm 32:11) (Deuteronomy 28:47-48) (1st Chronicles 29:9) (Nehemiah 8:10)
(2nd Corinthians 12:15, 9:7) (Philippians 2:14-15)

“Serve the Lord with Gladness”

Because It Reveals Our New Birth

Because It Reflects God’s Nature

(1st Chronicles 16:27, 31) (Hebrews 1:9)

Because It Recalls Christ’s Resurrection

(John 20:19-20) (1st Corinthians 15:19)

Because It Radiates With Blessedness

(2nd Chronicles 7:10) (Ephesians 1:3)

Because It Results In Rich Rewards

(Isaiah 55:12) (John 4:35-36) (1st Corinthians 15:58) (Galatians 6:9)

Because It Refreshes Other People

(Psalm 122:1)

Charles H. Spurgeon:

*“Let this be a point of judgment with every hearer
as to whether his soul finds joy in his religion or not;
let each man enquire
whether that which he professes to possess ever causes him delight?”*

(Psalm 84:10-12)

(Psalm 100:2 )
