Deception 1:

Jesus never mentioned homosexuality,
so He must have approved / considered unimportant.

Biblical Response:

Jesus affirmed God's design for Biblical marriage/sexuality in Matthew 19:4-6.

Deception 2:

The Old Testament prohibitions are no longer in effect,
like the dietary and ceremonial laws.

Biblical Response:

The New Testament continues to affirm
all of the moral prohibitions of the OT.

(Romans 1:24-28) (1st Corinthians 6:9-11) (1st Timothy 1:9-10) (Jude 7)

Deception 3:

People are born with innate desires,
so they must be God-given and therefore innately good.

Biblical Response:

All humans are born with fallen natures
and sinful desires outside of God's will.

Deception 4:

Love is love: if it's a consensual and non-exploitive relationship, it must be acceptable to God.

Biblical Response:

Love and sexual desire are not at all synonymous:
God defines love, not humans.

(1st John 5:3)

Deception 5:

Modern Bible translators inserted the word/concept of homosexuality into the Scriptures.

Biblical Response:

Even if the word “homosexual” isn’t used,
the Greek/Hebrew implies the same.

(1st Corinthians 6:9) (1st Timothy 1:10) (Jude 7)

Deception 6:

All sin is the same, so Christians should not single out homosexuality while ignoring others.

Biblical Response:

All sin is not the same and nobody really believes that.

(1st Corinthians 6:18)

Deception 7:

A person can identify as a practicing homosexual
and still be a faithful follower of Christ.

Biblical Response:

Scripture consistently calls all believers
to continual repentance of all known sin.

(1st Corinthians 6:11)
